SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong State University baseball squad placed five players on the 2016 Peach Belt Conference All-Academic Team, released today by league officials.

The team is part of a season-long program recognizing the outstanding accomplishments of PBC student-athletes in the classroom as well as on the field. To be eligible for the All-Academic team, a student-athlete must 1) participate in at least half of his/her team's events and be either a starter or significant contributor; 2) achieved a 3.30 cumulative grade point average (on a 4.0 scale) and 3) completed at least one full academic year at his or her current institution and has reached sophomore athletic eligibility.

Senior second baseman Cody Sherlin earns the honor for a third straight season - he was an honorable mention honoree in 2014 and a member of the team in 2015. The Ringgold, Ga., native earns the honor for carrying a 3.475 GPA in nursing.

Senior pitcher/outfielder Corey Crunk also was named to the team for a third straight year. The Acworth, Ga., native carries a 3.541 GPA in liberal studies. Junior outfielder Ryan Patterson, meanwhile, earns a spot on the team for a second straight year, as the Snellville, Ga., native carries a 3.453 GPA in human performance management.

Sophomore shortstop Chandler Corley collects a spot on the team in his first year of eligibility for carrying a 3.342 GPA. The Martinez, Ga., native is undecided in major. Wrapping up the Pirates' honorees is senior Tyler Green, who earns his first career honor. The Dublin, Ga., native carries a 3.448 GPA in health and physical education.
